NEW YORK INDOOR SPORT CLUB OPEN FINAL MAY 2015

Gao Janyun vs Jishan Liang

We had a great final in the open event at the NYISC , these two players are real artist in this sport, with different high precision shots gave a lecture about table tennis. Fortunately I had my camera and I was able to record the three games, which in the paper gave a victory for 3-0 to Jishan, but in the table was a fierce battle of similar stiles. Great match.
